We omitted in our report of the fair last week to refer to the basket ball game played between Hardisty and Wetaskiwin High school. The play was very fast and exciting from start to finish and proved of great interest to the large crowd of spectators. The visitors had the better of the play during the first period, the score at half time being six to four against the home team, but in the last period, the Wetaskiwin girls played better combination and finally won out by a small margin. After the game, the Wetaskiwin girls entertained the visitors at the W.C.T.U. tent.

In reporting the list of judges we also inadvertently omitted to state that judging the school work, which comprised the fine arts, map drawing and writing, as well as the collection of wild flowers, was done by Mrs. D. C. McLean and Mrs. Crosby The collection of work was very large and it was a difficult task.

LOCAL COMPANY PUTS ON PLAY

The Wetaskiwin Dramatic Club has secured some very good local talent and expect in a very short time to make their debut in a thrilling three act melodrama entitled "The Bandit's Ghost."

The plot is laid in the home of a retired army captain. The chief of police—a self-made man—who is a crook, induces the Captain to consent to his marriage with the Captain's only daughter Alice, but is foiled by the combined aid of her cousin Nancy and "The Bandit's Ghost." The chief of police tries to rob the Captain's home but is caught men. The scenes are laid as follows:

First Act—The Captain's Home.
Second Act—The Bandit's Cave.
Third Act—The Captain's Home.
After this play a series of plays will be given, and after the expenses have been met the balance will be turned over to the Wetaskiwin Times to be distributed where most needed.

The Wetaskiwin Dramatic Company will endeavor to give the public as good a time as any travelling show that might come to town.

Watch the Times for dates and announcements.

St. James—"The Epistle to the Wetaskiwinites."

On the plains of wild Valcartier
Near the roaring of the sea,
I, with my brother Patriots,
Was in deep commune you see,
This camp-life's spiflicating,
And the food we get, may be?
Perhaps you get good porridge
And sugar in your tea,
We get a medley mixture of a
Military feed, it satisfies our
Appetites, increases human greed.
As my wise and learned Compeer
Learned John of learned name
Hopes for that sweet reunion
In the town of beauties fame
Perhaps we may together
Brother John and Brother James,
Float across the amtd ocean
To the deadly wars and flames,
So Farewell, sweet beauteous ladies,
Till we all shall meet again
Where we all will be together
And remember past refrain,
If perchance in heaven we meet,
May the Lord keep guard of us,
I have left the Arms of Bacchus—
So you'll guess the rest of course,
So thank you, pretty maidens,
For the present you gave to me,
I'll carry it, I'll carry it,
To the lands across the sea,
If perchance a German bullet
Makes a swift, swift end of me,
There'll be room for more, more
Water. Mine's whiskey! James'
creed you see,
And when this watch is ticking
O'er life's tempestuous waves
May the tick, tick, tick, of this chronomet
Breathe heartfelt thanks to thee.
So Goodbye, Old Wetaskiwin,
And some day when we are free
We'll hoist the flag of freedom
O'er the land called Germany.

St. John—In revelation

Dearest of Girlz—If perchance, on the eve of my departure, I did not embrace you, I do so now. You will excuse me, I am sure, as my pent-up emotions overwhelmed me, although grieved at the parting, my soul lives in the hope of a grand re-union, if not in this world, perhaps with the Angels above. In conclusion allow me to thank you very heartily, one and all, for your God-speed and good luck. Au Revoir.

1st Epistle of St. Peter.

Afar off from the madening crowd I lay me down within my shroud, I pray the Lord my nose to keep from Bartimeus's big feet. Sweet James, he thinks he's going to die, and be an angel in the sky, on sick parade he takes his stand, holding his bum thumb in his hand. The noble Apostolic band wish that he never had a hand, for it's "Look out there! O, me thumb, if you touch it things are goin' to hum." With my fellow disciples I take my stand, I would fair meet you all in that Better land, Perhaps in Wetaskiwin, where beauty is born, we shall meet at that resurrection morn.

St. Thomas:—

And Thomas, the doubting, was not with the twelve at that time.

St. Bartholmew:—

Not being used to such presentations, I was slightly flabergasted and having recovered consciousness, I wish to thank you all for your munificent favor.

Ping-Pong-Pang, Away across the sea
Bing-Bong-Bang, Home again, It's me.

St. Phillip:—

Ladies, I greet you.

St. Andrew:—

Its a long, long way to old Wetaskiwin, but my heart's right there.

St. Matthew:—

Greeting with the rest of my brethren.

Zacchus:—

I, Zacchus, one of the twelve apostles of the city of Wetaskiwin, of the province of Alberta, hereby desire to express my profound appreciation of the kindness of the girls in the city of Wetaskiwin in presenting to me the handsome and useful watch which I will be proud to wear ever on my wrist and shew the same to the army at large as a token of esteem presented to me in all goodwill by the aforesaid girls. Thanking you one and all.

Greetings from St. Barnabas:—

Fairest and most charming of creatures, accept my sincere regards and heartfelt thanks for kindness shown.

Judas Iscariot—

I greet you, beauteous maidens of Wetaskiwin's fair domain. I hope in the near future to meet you all again, and personally to thank you, and press your tiny hands on my return from Germany and other foreign lands, and may I do you honor and be deserving of the same, and be a credit to Wetaskiwin, in Alberta's land of fame.

THANKSGIVING DAY.

Ottawa, Sept. 9.—The cabinet has fixed Thanksgiving Day for Thursday October 8.

Town Topics

Mrs. Ulyett was in the city during the week, attending the funeral of her grand son, and visiting friends.

J. F. Ellis' many friends are pleased to see him about again, after being confined to the house last week through illness.

The Wetaskiwin Salvation Army Band went to Leduc on Labor Day, where, in conjunction with the Army band of Strathcona, they gave an enjoyable musical festival.

R. M. Shaver has accepted a situation with the C. P. R., succeeding A. A. Pecknold, who went to the defence of the empire with the 101st contingent from Edmonton.

Mrs. J. F. Fowler and daughter, Edith, who have been spending the summer visiting friends in Regina, Saskatchewan and Winnipeg, returned home on Saturday morning last.

D. McPhail, fire ranger in the territory west of Wetaskiwin, was in the city on Tuesday evening shaking hands with his host of friends, and incidentally looking after business matters. He says he has had a pretty busy summer, as he has had several fires to quench.

The sympathy of their many friends is extended to Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Stowell in the loss of their five months old son at their home near Stettler. The funeral took place from the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. G. Stowell on Saturday, the remains being laid away in the Wetaskiwin cemetery.

Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Willows, who have been spending the summer with their daughter, Mrs. Dodson, in Iowa returned home last week. They also spent some time in Seattle, visiting their son, H. O. Farris. They report having had a good time, although the weather was extremely hot at times.

Among the new threshing machinery to be used this year in the district will be a complete new J. I. Case outfit which has been purchased by Fred Peterson, eight miles east of the city. O. A. Lydin has also bought a new J. I. Case separator complete. J. E. Johnson will also run a complete outfit made by the J. I. Case Co. All the deals were made by F. E. Kelley & Co.

Smith and Jones were talking one day about their business interests. Smith was an hotel man and Jones was a manufacturer's agent. "I say, said Jones, "however do you use such an enormous quantity of pears and peaches?" Well," replied Smith, "we eat what we can, and what we can't eat we can." "Indeed," said the other, "we do about the same in our business." "How is that?" "We sell an order when we can sell it, and when we can't sell it we cancel it."

The many friends of Mrs. Dahms, (nee Miss Maud Wybert) are grieved to learn of the sad drowning last week of Miss Kate Kemper, of Missouri, who was her bridesmaid only a few months ago. It appears that the unfortunate young lady was in company with her mother and a large party of friends near an embankment. As she went near the embankment, it caved in, taking her with it, and although everything possible was done to effect a rescue it was of no avail. A brother was also drowned a few years ago.

Vancouver, B.C., Sept. 7.—The Pacific cable broke today, apparently between the Bamfield station and Fanning Island, in mid-Pacific. The cause of the break has not yet been ascertained, but it is believed in some quarters that the German cruiser Nurnberg or the Leipzig did the mischief. The Nurnberg is reported fleeing from H.M.S. Australia, having left Honolulu a few days ago. Before she left the harbor she appeared to have received information that the Australia was awaiting her outside. If the Australia was actually in the vicinity the Nurnberg has been too busy dodging to bother with cables. The Leipzig has not been seen for several days and may be responsible.

War News Summary

Germans Reported To Be Retreating Before the Determined Attacks of the Allies. Appalling Losses Admitted on Both Sides. Austrian Army Badly Crippled By Russians.

Sept. 4.—As the lines around Paris tighten and the German forces draw closer to the French capital, the official statements to the press grow briefer and are more and more lacking in details.

So far as the public is concerned, little is actually known as to how the armies in the field are faring. Most of the Information made public from official quarters is of a negative character, as for instance, the announcement of the French war office that there has been no contact with the German forces in the region of Compeigne and Setlis since Wednesday and that the situation in the north-east has not changed.

The two towns are respectively 47 and 37 miles north-east of the capital and they appear to mark the points nearest to Paris to which the German advance guards have approached.

With the removal of the government to Bordeaux, all efforts around Paris have been directed to preparations for the threatened investment of the capital by the Germans. In addition the French authorities have ordered aeroplane patrols to guard against any further raids by German aeroplanes. A number of French aero planes are flying in the neighborhood of Paris and others are kept in readiness with guns to attack any of the Germans who appear in the sky.

Another list of British casualties is officially reported at London. It comprises casualties numbering 5,528 of whom 470 are killed and wounded and 4,758 are missing. The list show a large percentage of officers.

—o—

Sept. —While the official announcements made by the British and French authorities last night were to the effect that there had been no change in the situation of the belligerent armies, unofficial reports said that the German right wing had been checked and forced to retire on St. Quentin, on the river Somme, 30 miles northwest of Laon.

The British official press bureau in its statement said a German movement was developing in an eastward and southeastward direction. The exact geographical position of this movement was omitted.

Further confirmation was received in New York last night that many Russian troops had gone to France to join the allies against the Germans. Their number was estimated at between 70,000 and 80,000.

That another naval battle in the North Sea has occurred seems possible from a statement issued by the trade press bureau. It is said seven German torpedo boat destroyers had arrived at Kiel in a damaged condition, and that others were understood to have been sunk in the vicinity of the Kiel canal. In some quarters, however, it was suggested that the vessels may belong to the German force that was engaged in the recent fight with the British off Helgoland.

The official Russian statement concerning the capture of Lemberg, the capital of Galicia, says that it is believed the remnant of the Austrian army left after the Russian attack is no longer of military value. Besides the thousands of men killed, wounded or made prisoners, the Russians report that they took two hundred guns from the Austrians.

Grand Duke Nicholas, the commander-in-chief of the Russian army, has ordered that the captured territory in Austria-Hungary be administered by the Russian general in command of that country.

The Bulgarian minister to Greece declares that Bulgaria has decided to maintain her neutrality until the end of the war.

Sept. 7.—The allied armies defending the roads to Paris have again come into contact with the German right wing on the banks of the river Grand Morin, which runs east and west somewhat south of the Paris line.

From Berlin by way of Amsterdam comes the report that the Germans are attacking the forts at Nancy and that Emperor William and the general staff are watching the operation.

The British war information bureau has issued a long statement of the operations of the British army during the past week and in addition a list of British casualties which shows a total of more than 15,000 men up to September 1.

The statement, which is based on a report from Field Marshal Sir J. French, commander of the British forces at the front, speaks highly of the spirits of the British soldiers and their achievements. It declares that while the British losses are heavy they are not one-third of the losses inflicted by the British troops on the Germans. The statement makes an urgent call for more men.

WAR NEWS SUMMARY.

Berlin reports that 3,000 British prisoners have reached Dobertz.

France is calling out the 1913 recruits and in this way will add 250,000 men to her forces in a few months

The German Reichstag, with members of all parties, has promised its full support to whatever measures the minister of marine deems necessary. Appropriations will be made for the replacement of the ships that have been lost, and to carry out the program of construction already arranged.

The British steamer Runo, of the Wilson line, with hundreds of passengers aboard, has foundered in the North Sea after striking a mine. Most of those aboard were saved.

Russian official announcements describe a strong offensive movement against the Austrians on Sept. 4. The 45th Austrign regiment of infantry surrendered, 1,600 men being taken.

Sept. 8.—Apart from the announcement that the German forces have fallen back before the offensive attacks of the Allies on the line from Nanteuil-le-Haudeuin to Verdun, the most interesting report is contained in a despatch to the London Evening News from Bologne in which the French commander, General Pau, is given as authority for the statement that the allies have won a victory at Precy Sur Ctse, in which the imperial guard, under the command of the crown prince of Germany, is alleged to have been annihilated by a British force.

The British official bureau says the plans of the French commander in chief, General Joffre, are being steadily carried out, and that the allies have succeeded in forcing back in a northeast direction the German force opposed to them.

Paris officially reports that the allies have advanced their left wing without energetic opposition by the Germans, and that several engagements on the Ourcq River have favored the French and British troops.

The Russian army operating in Galicia is reported still to be driving back the Austrians.

Sept. 9.—Official reports from both Paris and London indicate successful movements at least for the time being by the allied armies against the Germans. London reports that the British have pushed the opposing forces back ten miles and that the allies are maintaining ground along the line of the Ourcq and Petit Morin rivers.

Wounded soldiers who have reached Paris tell of the severity of the fighting in the Champagne country and of very heavy losses.

With hundreds of thousands of men engaged on both sides the battle now in full swing to the east of Paris promises to be the most important of the campaign up to the present.

The Russian troops are still engaged in fierce combats with the Austrian forces in the Rawa district, Russian Poland. Fighting is almost continuous and the outcome in this region has not been determined.

France announces that it is sending reserves to Morocco to release regulars now there for service with the army in France.

Christobal Pankhurst, the militant suffragette leader, has ranged herself on the side of the prime minister in the present critical condition of the country. She says that the militant women are ready to take their place in the line or help to save the nation in any way deemed most advisable.

Sept. 10.—Latest official reports from the French government indicate that the offensive tactics undertaken in the last day or two by the allied armies have had the effect of forcing the Germans back at various points in the battle line which extends a few miles east of Paris to Verdun, a distance of about two hundred miles.

Bordeaux reports officially that the British army has crossed the river Marne and that the Germans have fallen back 25 miles. The efforts of the Germans to break the French lines are likewise officially reported to have failed.

Seemingly the Germans are short of ammunition at the front and are having difficulties in provisioning, and the French war department officially announces that on the whole "the Germans appear to be beginning a movement of retrest."

The Russian and Austrian armies continue to oppose each other in a long drawn out engagement beyond Lublin district, Russian Poland. An official statement issued at Petrograd declares that both Austrian and German troops have been dislodged from their fortified positions in that action and have retired towards the south.

The battlefield in France is that over which Napoleon fought in 1814, with entrenched camps on both wings and the centre.

King George has addressed a message to the British dominions and colonies in which he protests that the war was not of Great Britain's seeking and expresses his warmest thanks for the assistance rendered by them.

Maubeuge, a French fortress, has fallen into the hands of the Germans and according to the report the Germans took 40,000 prisoners and 400 guns.

The British official press bureau announces the wreck off the coast of Scotland of the White Star liner Oceanic. The officers and crew were saved.

ALBERTA IN GOOD SHAPE, ACCORDING TO PREMIER SIFTON.

Hon. Arthur L. Sifton, premier of Alberta, and Hon. A. J. McLean, Provincial secretary, and acting minister of agriculture, arrived in the city Wednesday morning. Mr. McLean is on his way to Fort William in connection with the shipping of oats presented by the province of Alberta to the imperial government.

While here, Mr. Sifton informed the Free Press representative that conditions, generally speaking, in Alberta were, under all the circumstances, very good. While the crop was very small in the southeastern corner of the province, it was very large in some sections, and in all the rest of the province there was practically an average crop, and the high price of all kinds of farm produce, both stock and grain, would probably result in at least as much money being paid to the farmers of Alberta this year as in any year yet.

Of course the financial depression owing to the war has stopped absolutely all speculative enterprises, and has curtailed operations in many other anticipated new schemes of construction of a large nature, but one result has been to send quite a large number of people on land, which they have neglected for speculative purposes, and so far as it is possible all farmers are straining every nerve in an effort to prepare as much land as possible for cultivation next year, and Mr. Sifton had no doubt that that next year would see a larger area than ever before in crop in Alberta.

Railway construction by the Canadian Pacific, the Canadian Northern, and Grand Trunk Pacific within the province has been completely stopped but the railways being built in the north—the Edmonton-Dunvegan, and the Alberta and Great Waterways railway, the former of, which, J. D. McArthur, of Winnipeg, is president—are being constructed with all possible speed. Employment is being given to all the men and teams that it is possible profitably to use on these lines, and it is anticipated that on these two lines leading up to the great north country, at least four hundred miles of steel will be laid before work stops this year, placing the railways in a position to handle the large crops that are already being raised in the Peace River country, and in a position on the opening of spring to take in immense numbers of people that are expected to settle in that north country.

In regard to military matters, Mr. Sifton says that more than 4,000 has already enlisted from the province of Alberta, and that there would be no difficulty whatever in more than doubling the number on a week's notice. In addition to those who have enlisted, and are willing to enlist as infantry, there are in Alberta a very large number of first class men, unexcelled anywhere, who would, however, from life-long association, prefer to go as cavalry. They have been accustomed to riding all their lives—feel more at home in the saddle than anywhere else—and have it the feeling that they would do more good in the way in which they are accustomed to work than in any other way, and Mr. Sifton would estimate that a force of probably 5,000 cavalry could easily be raised in the province of Alberta, well able to do their work, and to be of great assistance. Probably a very large proportion of these, if necessary, would enlist anyway, and, if it was for the benefit of the empire, go as infantry but the sentiment is very strong in favor of the other course.

So far as the work of the provincial government is concerned, Mr. Sifton says that all necessary public works, particularly those in which the greater portion of the cost is wages, are being carried on as usual, and in some portions of the country where the crops were light, to an exceptional degree, for the purpose of assisting those who, through no fault of their own, are this year in the unfortunate position of not having crops.

Financially, the province is in a good position, and able to carry out the absolute essential works without borrowing for some considerable time.

No Chance for a Kick

When you buy your Lumber and Building Materials here. Looking backward over the past you may recall instances of dissatisfaction with the quality of the Lumber and Building Material which you bought.

If this is so, it should certainly interest you to know that we have a stock fromwhich you can get the kind of material that suits you, at prices no greater, and often less, than you will have to pay for unsatisfactory stuff at other places.

When we sell you Lumber or Building Material, we expect you to come again. This being the case, why shouldn't we do all we can to please you in quality, price and treatment?

The fact that buyers almost invariably come back after once buying here is strong evidence that we give them "no chance to kick."

SUFFERED FOR FOUR YEARS
From Heart Trouble and Nervous Prostration

Mrs. John Hewson, Caledonia, Ont., writes:—"I feel it my duty to let you know of the great benefit your Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills did for me. I suffered for four years with heart trouble and nervous prostration. I was so bad that I could not go upstairs without sitting down at the top before I could go to my room. I couldn't sleep nor lie on my left side, for it would seem as though my heart would stop. I thought my time had come. I was doctoring with the doctor, but didn't get any benefit. I was advised to take Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills, so I got two boxes, and after I had taken one box I began to feel better, and after I had taken two I could go up and down stairs without resting, so I took eight boxes, and I am enjoying good health again. I consider it a Godsend to have your pills in the house."

Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills are 50 cents per box or 3 boxes for $1.25 at all dealers or mailed direct on receipt of price by The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

SANTA CLAUS AND THE WAR

Of all lovers of peace on earth and good will among men, none will deplore the European war more than that good friend of the children, of all nations, Santa Claus. Many of Santa's great factories, where most of his toys and dolls are made, are in Germany, and now the German people are deserting the factories to kill other people, or to be killed themselves. The result is that next Christmas old Santa Claus will not be able to send half as many toys as usual to his little friends all over the world, and dolls will be as scarce as $100 bills in children's money boxes. Santa is terribly disappointed, and the little folk must remember it is not his fault but the fault of the dreadful war.—Grain Growers' Guide.

According to E. J. Fream, of the Grain Growers' Grain Company, only about 300 harvesters have as yet been distributed to the different districts of Alberta from this city. In previous years the number amounted to about 4,500. No eastern laborers are needed in the province to harvest the crop this season, as the number of men in the various districts is large enough to look after the work.

Had Severe Stomach Trouble and Sick Headache

Could Not Eat Anything Without Agonizing Pain

My health is better now than it has been for years, and I owe it to Milburn's Laxa-Liver Pills,—writes Miss Rose Doyle, Connaught, Ont. "I was for several years troubled with severe stomach trouble and sick headache. Could not eat anything without agonizing pain. My sick headaches were most violent, and I could not rest night or day. I became emaciated and thoroughly despondent, and no medicine seemed to help me until I took Milburn's Laxa-Liver Pills. In five months I was entirely cured."

Milburn's Laxa-Liver Pills are without a doubt one of the best remedies on the market to-day for all the troubles arising from the wrong action of the Liver.

You can procure them from any druggist or general store. If they haven't them in stock send direct to The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont. Price, 25 cents per vial or 5 vials for $1.00.

MAGNIFICIENT RESULTS IF THE FARMERS INCREASE ACREAGE.

"Supposing every farmer in Canada were to enlarge his wheat production by putting five acres more under crop than he had this year, the total production of wheat in this country would be increased by fifty million bushels. If each farmer were to sow ten acres more wheat, the increase would be doubled. Surely it would be a simple matter to get every farmer in Canada to enlarge his acreage by this small amount. There may be a few who could not do it, but this lack would be offset by the work of those who could easily add fifty or one hundred acres.

"The only possible difficulty lies in the matter of finance. Some farmers may be able to pay for the labor required to cultivate and seed down an extra ten acres. The work of a national commission and the various provincial committees should be directed towards helping these particular farmers. The financing of them would not be a serious problem nor an onerous undertaking. The amount of capital involved would be very small.

"This is the problem which is before the Canadian people. It is the pressing problem. It should be considered seriously and promptly. In eastern Canada the land must be prepared and seeded within six weeks. In western Canada the land must be prepared for seeding in the same time. There is no time for delay!"—The Canadian Courier.

There appears to be a misapprehension as to mails to Great Britain. The mail service to and from the old country is as open as ever. For a short time no money orders could be sent "home" but this restriction has been done away with. The point in the notice given a couple of weeks ago is that there, is no mail service between Great Britain and British colonies on one hand and Germany and German possessions on the other hand. That is, while mail for Great Britain it carried, no mail matter of any nature is accepted for Germany or her allies.

Vancouver, B. C., Sept. 5.—British Columbia will send 25,000 cases of tinned salmon as a special gift to the empire. There are 48 tins in each case, and the shipment will be worth approximately $125,000.

WHY CANADA SHOULD BE CONFIDENT

In view of the events taking place in Europe which will constitute an epoch of perhaps unprecedented importance in history, we appeal strongly to all Canadian business men and all who hold securities or investments of any kind to meet the present situation with calmness and confidence. Our first duty, at any cost, is to aid in Great Britain's sustenance and defence, and our next duty, not less important, is to keep the business of the Dominion moving as normally as possible.

Let it be remembered that while we must lay aside something to pay our share of the war, we have at our back storehouses of natural wealth scarcely yet touched. As the calamities of Europe place a higher value on our wheat and other exportable crops, so will the same calamities—the result of militarism and conscription—make the peaceful land of Canada more attractive to some of the best people of Europe whose hopes and lands, generation after generation, have been despoiled or devastated by war. At the present instant Canada stands practically immune from the physical menace of war; our fields are giving their wealth to the harvester, and our other resources are yielding their bounty in greater proportions than ever. Wealth production is proceeding, and the opportunities for still greater primary production are not diminishing. This continent, including Canada will profit largely and speedily by the changes in the world's currents of trade during the war. Many of our factories will find demands on them stimulated because of restrictions placed upon the productive machinery of Europe by the exigences of war, and though for a time in diminished quantities, a fair proportion of Britain's available capital will come to Canada for investment. Under the circumstances, therefore, the one great essential to keep business moving is confidence, and Canada, of all nations of the world, has the least excuse to offer for any lack of it.

"In the unprecedented and critical situation that exists," says Sir Geo. Paish, "it is of the greatest importance that everyone should endeavor to act as if great events were not impending. Were confidence seriously disturbed, business would practically come to an end, and our ability to face the difficulties that may be in front of us would be seriously impaired. Therefore, it is of vital importance that, as far as possible, the events that are now taking place should not interfere with the daily life and daily work of the nation. Orders should be given, factories should be run, and everything should be arranged to maintain, as far as possible, the productive power and the income of the country.

"But, for this to be accomplished the situation must be faced with courage and confidence on the part of everyone. Investors must continue to invest, bankers must continue to lend, the Stock Exchange must continue to deal, and every one according to his ability must endeavor to work hard in order that individual incomes, and therefore the income of the whole nation, may be maintained at the highest possible level.

"A little over a century ago, when the nation was at war with Napoleon, its income was a very small one, being less than one-eighth of what it is at present, and in a comparatively small space of time the British people succeeded in raising about £21,000,000,000 of money for war purposes, and so great was their confidence and courage at the end of the great war, which severely taxed their resources, they were stronger and wealthier than they had been at the beginning.

Canada's natural store is as yet barely touched. From any temporary lull in our progress, from whatever cause, we can, therefore, recover ourselves more quickly than did the motherland after her world struggle of a century ago, if our people are of the same heart and industry, and we are confident they are. Courage in the fight for the empire is not more necessary than courage in the maintenance of the industry and the commerce of the country.—Financial Post.

GALLEY ONE A CENTURY AGO.

A hundred years ago electric cars and electric lights were unknown—men hadn't even seen a bicycle.

The typewriter had yet to be invented—stenographers were yet to come.

Men could not hear grand opera stars on the graphaphone or even strike a match—both were unknown.

He had never seen his own likeness indelibly stamped by the action of the camera—had never talked over the phone or raged at "central."

The only bridge he had ever crossed was of wood—as was the only plow he had ever used.

He couldn't buy a ten cent magazine, filled with colored illustrations—or send a telegram to hurry along a belated order.

Thirty-story buildings were undreamed of—huge, ocean-going palaces were unknown.

Anesthetics were still to be discovered—a man couldn't have his leg amputated and not feel it.

THE LIQUOR ACT.

The Alberta Temperance and Moral Reform League is preparing to submit The Liquor Act to The Legislature this next session of parliament. The necessary petitions are now being circulated. In order that our readers may have some knowledge of the purport of the Act, the following summary has been prepared from an advance copy of the Act which came to hand this week.

The 'Interpretation' sets forth the meaning of such words as vendor, vendor's premises, physician, dentist, veterinary surgeon, druggist, private dwelling house, etc. The expression 'liquor' or 'liquors' shall include all fermented, spirituous and malt liquors, and all combinations of liquors and all drinks and drinkable liquids which are intoxicating; and any liquor which contains more than two and a half per cent of proof spirits shall be conclusively deemed to be intoxicating.

The Lieutenant Governor in Council may appoint suitable persons as vendors who shall keep such liquors as are required for medicinal, mechanical, scientific and sacramental purposes only. No vendor shall have any interest in the liquor sold by him, or shall derive any profit therefrom, but the profits derived from the sale shall accrue to the benefit of the province. The salary of the vendor shall be fixed by the Lieutenant Governor in Council, and he shall also fix the price of sale. Every vendor who violates the provisions of the Act shall be guilty of an offence and liable to a penalty, of not less than $200 and not more than $500 for every offence and in default of payment forthwith to imprisonment for not less than three months nor more than six months. Every vendor who is convicted shall also forfeit his right to be a vendor for a period of three years. A vendor may sell alcohol for mechanical or scientific purposes but no sale shall be made except upon the affidavit of the applicant that the alcohol is required for the above purposes only, stating how and where the alcohol is to be used, and that it is not to be used as a beverage, or to be sold or given away, and that it is intended for the applicant's own use, and that the applicant is over 21 years of age, and such affidavit shall also set forth the quantity desired and no more than one sale or one delivery shall be made on one affidavit. A vendor may sell wine for sacramental purposes, but only to a minister of the Gospel, and only upon the written request of the said minister stating the purpose for which it is required. Every vendor, druggist, physician shall keep an accurate record of every sale, or disposal made by him, his partner, clerk, servants, or agents, of any liquor forming an ingredient in any prescription and of each sale of liquor or alcohol. Such record shall show the time when sold, the kind and quantity of liquor and the prescription or request upon which the sale is made. In default of keeping such report being kept, every such sale shall be deemed in contravention of the Act. The records and affidavits must be forwarded to the Attorney General upon the last day of each and every month. No liquor must be drunk within or upon the premises upon which the sale is made. No sale or other disposal of liquors shall take place, nor shall licensed premises be open for such sale from five o'clock on Saturday night until seven o'clock on Monday morning, or from six o'clock at night until seven in the morning on other nights of the week.

No person shall within the province of Alberta, expose or keep for sale, or offer to sell any liquor except as authorised by the Act.

A physician may prescribe liquor when he deems it necessary for the health of his patients, and he may keep in his possession liquor not exceeding two quarts at any one time.

A dentist may keep in his office one pint of liquor and a veterinary surgeon may have in his possession a quantity not exceeding one gallon.

No society, association or club, shall sell or keep for sale any liquor Proof of consumption or intended consumption of liquor in such premises shall be conclusive evidence of the sale of such liquor.

Whenever any person has drunk liquor to excess, and while in a state of intoxication from such drinking, has come to his death by suicide, or drowning, or perishing from cold or other accident caused by such intoxication, the person or persons who furnished or gave the liquor to such person when in a state of intoxication or on whose premises it was obtained by such intoxicated person while intoxicated, shall be liable ito an action for a wrongful act, and as a personal wrong, and the amount which may be recovered as damages shall not be less than one hundred dollars or more than fifteen hundred dollars.

For every offence against this act, or any of the provisions thereof, for which a penalty has not be specially provided by this act, the person committing the offence shall be liable on summary conviction to a penalty for the first offence of not less than thirty days nor more than one hundred dollars, and in default, to imprisonment for a period of not less than thirty daas nor more than two months, and for the second offence to a penalty of not less than $200 nor more than $500, and in default of immediate payment to imprisonment for a term of not less than two months nor more than four months and for any subsequent offence to imprisonment for not less than three months nor more than six months without the option of a fine.

Sections 41-67 deal with convictions 68-70 deals with penalties; and 71 states that police officers, policemen and constables shall have full authority to enforce any of the provisions of the Act. The last section of the Act states that it shall come into force and operation on the first day of July, 1916.

GALLEY FOUR

THE GRAY MOTHER

(To an old Gaelic air)
(The Colonial Volunteers proceeded to the front—Public Press)

Lo, how they come to me,
Long through the night I call them
Ah, how they turn to me.

East and South my children scatter,
North and West the world they wander.

Yet they come back to me,
Come with their brave hearts beating,
Longing to die for me.

Me, the gray, old, weary mother,
Throned amid the Northern waters,

Where they have died for me,
Died with their songs around me,
Girding my shores for me.

Narrow was my dwelling for them,
Homes they builded o'er the ocean.

Yet they leave all for me,
Hearing their mother calling,
Bringing their Kves for me.

Far from South seas swiftly sailing,
Out from under stars I know not,

Come they to fight for me.
Sons of the sons I nurtured,
God keep them safe for me!

Long ago their fathers saved me,
Died for me among the heather,

Now they come back to me,
Come in their children's children
Brave of the brave for me.

In the wilds and waves they slumber,
Deep thy slumber in the deserts,

Rise they from graves to me,
Graves where they lay forgotten
Shades of the brave for me.

Yet my soul is veiled in sadness,
For I see them fall and perish,

Strewing the hills for me,
Claiming the world in dying,
Bought with their blood for me.

Hear the gray, old Northern mother,
Blessing now her dying children,—

God keep ye safe for me,
Christ watch ye in your sleeping,
Where ye have died for me.

And when God's own slogan soundeth
All the dead world's dust awaking

Ah, will ye look for me?
Bravely we stand together.
I and my sons with me.
—L. MacLean Watt in the Spectator.

HILLSIDE

(Intended for last week)

Vincent March left on Monday for Chicago where he intends continuing his studies which has been interrupted by his year and a half sojourn at Hillside. The young people of this neighborhood will miss him sadly.

Mr. Henry G. Young was a successful exhibitor at the Wetaskiwin fair. The exhibits were from his splendid flower garden. The admiration of fair-goers was especially called by his magnificient roses. Mr. Young is well known as an horticulturist in this district and it is due largely to his efforts that Hillside Park gardens are so attractive.

Mr. F. A. Carlson is seriously ill and has gone to the hospital in Edmonton. He takes with him the sympathy of the neighborhood.

Six degrees of frost here on the morning of the 1st. It has done considerable damage to gardens and has probably affected some of the grain in the neighborhood.

The government Percheron Stallion exhibited by L. W. Marr, brought the first prize at the Wetaskiwin fair.

The man who takes to the cyclone cellar as soon as there is unexpected change in the commercial conditions is not doing his duty to the empire. The man who decides that he should hide his cash in a hole in the wall and dismiss his employees and pull down the shutters is an unpatriotic man and is stabbing the empire. The man who talks blue ruin and does business on the blue ruin plan is unworthy of a place in a rising city like this. The patriot whodoes not yield readily to panic and who does his part to keep the flag flying at home is doing service for the empire. And his part just now is to go upon his work seriously and without undue alarm.— Calgary Albertan.

WHY ALL THIS PESSIMISM?

It is, to say the least, amusing, to contemplate the absurd ideas concerning western Canada entertained by outsidess, but when it is considered that westerners themselves are often responsible for it, the matter becomes rather aggravating. The people of the west are generally regarded as good optimistic sports, but there are some amongst us who are on occasions anything else, but good sports, and the strange part of it all is that business men who have been among the most successful are the first to get "cold feet." if conditions do not happen to continue at the same progressive and brisk pace.

Among those who have been bemoaning the situation as we have it now are men who have been in the last few years so busy making money that they hardly knew what to do with their gains. Then because this year the war has come along, and business has not gone forward by leaps and bounds, as usual, they see nothing but "blue ruin" in the present or future. Trade has varied as to degree of activity in every country on earth at some time or other, and why howl at an occasional setback here? As a matter of fact, there is no set-back, it is only a temporary halt.

Is it not strange that otherwise good business men should imagine or fear that one of these fine days western Canada should reach such a disaster that it cannot recover? Here we have a country as large as other countries that have 100,000,000 in population, and yet we have only about 8,000,000, and the surface of our resources is hardly scratched.—Commercial.

Someone has advanced the opinion that the letter "e" is the most unfortunate letter in the English alphabet, because it is always out, of cash, forever in debt, never out of danger and in hell all the time. For some reason he overlooked the fortunates of the letter, as we call attention to the fact that it is never in war and alway in peace. It is the beginning of existence, the commencement of ease and the end of trouble. Without it there would be no meat, no life, no heaven. It is the center of honesty, makes perfect love and without it there would be no editors devils or news.

Putting up a stove pipe is easy enough if you only go at it right. In the morning breakfast on some light nutritious diet and drink two cups of hot coffee after which put on a suit of old clothes—or new ones, if you can get them on time—put on an old pair of buckskin gloves, and when everything is ready to strike the fatal blow, go and get a good hardware man who understands his business. If this rule is strictly adhered to, the gorgeous, 18 karat, stem-winding profanity of the present day would be diminished and the world be profited thereby.

The Summer Complaint of Infants

IS CHOLERA INFANTUM

Many Children Die from this Trouble When They Could be Cured by the Use of DR. FOWLER'S EXTRACT OF WILD STRAWBERRY

A remedy which will quickly offset the vomiting, purging, and the profuse diarrhoea, accompaning a case of this nature.

Mrs. George Henley, Boxgrove, Ont., writes—"I can recommend Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry for Cholera Infantum. My little girl was so sick I did not think she could live, as we could not lift her up, for when we moved her her bowels would move. I gave her "Dr. Fowler's" and the first dose helped her, and one bottle cured her. I recommended it to my sister whose child was sick, and it cured her also. Then again I have told other friends about it, and they have found that it is a grand medicine to have in the house all the time."

There are many preparations on the market to-day, claiming to make the same cures as "Dr. Fowler's" but these no-name, no-reputation, so called strawberry compounds are nothing more or less than rank imitations, and are liable to be a detriment to your health.

When you ask for "Dr. Fowler's" be sure you get it. Do not accept any other as these substitutes may be dangerous.

CAMROSE

(From The Canadian)

Tuesday and Wednesday ,September 15 and 16, are the dater decided upon for holding the convention at Camross of the Union of Alberta Municipalities.

There are fifty-three students at Normal this term, two new students having been admitted this week Work is well under way under the able direction of Principal McNall.

Dr. Nordbye has arrived in town. He has rented the office in the south part of the Red Cross building on Main street pending the completion of his residence which is being built to accommodate his office.

Herbert W. Johnstone of Olds has purchased the drug store of A. M. Sanders. the transfer being made this week. Mr. Johnstone has been at Olds three years, his former home being Owen Sound, Ontario.

Word was received in town on Monday evening that J. F. Cannif died on Monday afternoon in Edmonton, Mr. Cannif practised law in Camrose for several years, moving to Edmonton about three years ago. The funeral was held at Edmonton on Wednesday.

The death of W. R. Dingman of Heather Brae, occurred as his home on Friday, August 21. Mr. Dingman was one of the old settlers of that district having come from Picton, Prince Edward county, Ontario, in the year 1900, and located on the south-east shore of Dried Meat Lake. He is survived by his widow, t two sons, Lester and Blake, who are residing at home and four daughters.

SEVEN BROTHERS WHO RALLY ROUND THE FLAG

Perhaps no other place in the British overseas dominions can boast of contributing from one home a similar number of young heroes to take up arms in defence of the Motherland as in the quiet little hamlet of Frog Marsh, Newfoundland.

Here in this hitherto unheard of section dwells an old lady and seven sons. Years ago the hand of death laid low the breadwinner and mainstay of the family, but with womanly pluck and good old Irish faith, Mrs. William Flynn grappled against great odds and kept the wolf from the door.

This was some few years ago, and since then the sturdy sons grew into manhood while the aged mother looked with pride to seven of as noble sons as ever graced a heroes sphere.

This was proved when a short time ago the call went out for men to do or die for England's cause. It reached the little hamlet and penetrated the quiet happy home of the Flynn's in Frog Marsh.

Instantly seven brothers, sons of a patriotic old Irish lady, responded to the call and today on one of the battleships ready to do what ever the enemy.

Nor did they leave as is generally the case, 'mid the tears of loved ones and family ties, for out there in the dreary little Newfoundland home, is Mrs. William Flynn, whose heart is proud because she is the mother of more heroes than any other woman in the western hemisphere can boast of.

And may they return to add further cheer to their devoted mother, whose declining years should be made happy by those who are maintained by such heroes as the seven Flynn brothers of Frog Marsh, Newfoundland.

THE KAISER'S BLOOD-GUILT

The brand of Cain is on your brow,
Emperor !
A crown of gold may hide it now,
Emperor !
But when the day of reckoningcomes
When flags are furled and hushed the drums,
When labor goes with hrulsed hands
To plow once more the blood-stained lands,
A people's wrath will rend the skies
And topple down your dynasties,
Emperor !

In vain you call upon the Lord,
Emperor !
You boast of honor and the sword,
Emperor !
What god will bless the hideous flood
Which drowns the world in human blood ?
The vengeance of a broken trust
Will grind your empire in the dust,
Till Hohenzollern crowns are cast
Upon the refuse of the past,
Emperor !
The cries of multitudes unfed,
Emperor !
The curses of the millions dead,
Emperor !
Will these not heap on you the scorn
Of generations yet unborn?
Are there no murmurs in your ear
Of retribution drawing near?—
The fingers of a hand that write
Inscribe your doom upon the night,
Emperor !

—Frederick George Scott.

WOMAN'S BEST MEDICINE

Mrs. Kelly Advises all Women to Take "Fruit-a-Tives"

HAGERSVILLE, ONT., Aug. 26th. 1913.

"I can highly recommend "Fruit-a-tives" because they did me an awful lot of good and I cannot speak too highly about them. About four years ago, I commenced taking "Fruit-a-tives" for a general break-down and they did me a world of good. We bought a good many dollar's worth, but it was money well spent because they did all that you claim for them. Their action is so pleasant, compared with other laxatives, that I found only pleasure, as well as health, in taking them. They seemed to me to be particularly suited to women, on account of their mild and gentle action, and I trust that some other women may start taking "Fruit-a-tives" after reading my letter, and if they do, I am satisfied the results will be the same as in my own case".

MRS. W. N. KELLY

"Fruit-a-tives" are sold by all dealers at 50c. a box, 6 for $2.50, trial size, 25c, or sent postpaid on receipt of price by Fruit-a-tives Limited, Ottawa.

GOOD CROPS IN CENTRAL ALBERTA

"Crops throughout the Edmonton district are without exception of the highest quality," said George Harcourt, deputy minister of agriculture of Alberta, upon returning to his office in the parliament building from a tour of Central Alberta. "And he added, "the yield will be equally as large as last year. All the crops in Central Alberta are particularly good and the farmers are exceedingly well satisfied with the prospects. Grain prices are higher than ever, as a result of the European war. There are also increases in the prices of cows, beef cattle, hogs and sheep. The marketing of this crop should have a highly beneficial effect upon all lines of business this fall and iwinter."

IMMIGRATION IS CHECKED BY EUROPEAN WAR

Ottawa, Sept. 5.—The total immigration to Canada during April, May June and July, 1111, was 105,811, made up of 32,312 British, 33,930 American, and 38,389 from all other countries. During the corresponding time last year, the total was 250,906 composed of 99,114 British, 54,540 American, and 97,752 from all other countries. Decrease, 56 per cent.

Immigration during August through ocean ports was practically nil. Owing to the war the estimated decrease is 50 per cent in immigration. The total arrivals for the year will probably not amount to more than 25 or 30 per cent of last year's figures.

FAMILY PAYS FIFTY CENTS EACH WEEK TO HELP FIGHT WAR

Considering fathers' cigars and liquors, mother's fixings, baby's candies and the food staples touched by the Canadian war budget, every Winnipeg family will have to pay approximately fifty cents per week as its shares of the Dominion's expense in the great war.

Here is a table prepared by retail merchants of the household tax effects:

INCREASED PRICE
Coffee, per lb	5c
Condensed Milk,	1c.0c
Biscuits, per lb	1c-2c.
GALLEY SEVEN
Canned Fruit, per can,	1c-2c.
Jams,	1c.-2c.
Desiccated Cocoanut,	4c-41c.
Sugar, gran'd, lb	1c

Besides these, the head of the house will pay more for cigars and whiskies, though the exact amounts are not yet determined. Three for a quarter cigars will be ten cents each, and it is probable that a 15c cigar will cost 20c.

Beer, now sold in most bars, three drinks for a quarter, will be 10 cents straight. Case goods will also go up probably to 20c a drink.

The children are affected, a gradual rise in candies being imminent.

Fruits preserved in brandy is one of the luxuries that is heavily taxed but the article is not made in great demand.

FORGED CHEQUE ON WINNIPEG BANK

Calgary, Alta., Sept. 4.—Guy E. Sessions, a business softoitor, was convicted in th? police court today of forging and uttering two cheques, one for $500 on the Northwestern National Bank of Minneapolis, and one for $800 on the Imperial Bank of Canada, ar Winnipeg.

Magistrate Sanders sentenced Sessions to three years in the penitentiary at Edmonton.

PIGEON LAKE TO THE FRONT

The ratepayers and pupils of the Springhill school district assembled themselves at the surprise party at the residence of Sandy Wager in honor of Mr. Riley, their teacher, to bid him a farewell as he has volunteered to go to the front to aid the mother country in this, her time of trouble. There were the usual efforts to cheer a comrade. An address was read by Mr. Berdan, the teacher of Conjuring Creek school; dancing and singing and a well provided lunch as the party. The usual hand-shaking The usual hand-shaking and farewells were quite solemn, and was last of all mingled with a feeling of pride to have a volunteer to start from Pigeon Lake to the front. las Mr Riley has seen service in South Africa we have every confidence that he, as a Canadian, will perform the duties of war assigned to him with the same gold spirit to build up the empire, with a credit to himself and the district he is leaving behind. His stay with us has been short and he has always made every effort to please. We hope that he may be permitted to return in the near future. Three cheers for Riley !

"CAP." BENNETT KILLED IN RACE AT MACLEOD

Macleod, Sept. 7.—"Capta'n" Bennett, of Stockton, Cal., whose team of professional automobile racers gave an exhibiton here today, was killed when the steering gear of his machine failed in the third race. Bennett's mechanician jumped clear and escaped with minor injuries but Bennett himself was pinned under the car when it careened over at the turn of the half mile track.

About 700 people witnessed the accident.

The remaining part of the racing program was carried out, including two races in which Bennett's daughter took part.

POPE CROWNED WITH IMPOSING SOLEMNITY

Rome, Sept. 6.—The coronation of Pope Benedict XV. took place today in the Sistine chapel. The ceremony was imposing in its solemnity. The Sistine chapel was used for the occasion in order to avoid pomp during the war that is in progress. The entire pontifical court, many of the Roman aristocracy and families of the pontiff were present. The scene with Pope Benedict seated in the sedia gestatore chair, preceded by the bearers of the triple crown, and flanked by the bearers of the celebrated feather fans, and sixty cardinals in their full vestments, was a striking one. When the ceremony was over the pope was received with loud acclaim by those present.

THE BETTER DAY

When the world is sick of killing, and the nations tired of gore, man will draw his daily shilling, as a butcher, never more. He'll get down to useful labor, softly saying, "Way the deuce should I shoot my next door neighbor, with no reason or excuse?" When this graft of wholesale murder, relic of dark days, shall cease, man will use his strength to further all the gentle arts of peace. Then disarmed will be the legions and the sun will smile at morn on the quiet, fertile regions, where we'll raise our kaffir corn. Then the gun which like a crater, belches fire and fury now, will become a cultivator, or, perhaps, a three-horse plow. Captains then, who "give no quarter," kings with terror in their looks shall convert the gun and mortar into scythes and pruning hooks. Then no more shall foolish trixes call the nations into fray, and we'll turn our quick-firing rifles into tools for pitching hay. So this present cataclysm shocking though it be, and vast, we may view with optimism, since its apt to be the last. When the soldiers have dismounted from their chargers scarred and thin, when the corpses have been counted, and the blood has measured been, drums of war will throb no longer, flags of battle will be furled, and the weaker and the stronger hand in hand will walk the world.—Walt Mason.

JULES VERNE HAS NOTHING ON THIS TRUE WAR STORY

London, September 4.—The est war story comes from a British naval lieutenant. Describing the Hellgoland sea fight he says:

"H. M. S. (censored) having sunk an enemy, lowered a whalir to pick up the swimming survivors. Before the whaler got back an enemy's warship came up and chased the cruiser, and thus she abandoned the whaler. Imagine their feeling, alone in an open boat without food, 25 miles from the nearest land, and the enemy's fortress, with nothing but fogs and foes around them.

"Suddenly a spirl alongside, and up, if you please, pops His Brittanic Majesty's submarine, opens the conning tower, takes them in, shuts up again, and brings them home, 250 miles.

"Is not that magnificient? No novel would dare criticism with an episode like that in it, except, perhaps, Jules Verne, and it's all true."—Calgary Herald.

FINANCIAL DISTRICT MEETING OF THE METHODIST CHURCH.

The financial district meeting of the Wetaskiwin district of the Methodist church was held in the Methodist church, Wetaskiwin, on Wednesday of this week. The ministers and probationers present were Rev. C. J. Bailey, Camrose, chairman of the district; Rev. T. C. Buchanan, superintendent of missions; and Revs. Mann, Wright, Berry, Hargraves and Suttill. There was but one layman present, M. W. Brooks of Bittern Lake. The requests from the general mission board for the missions in the district, were as follows: Millet, married ordained man in charge, $565.00; Bawlf, married ordained man in charge. $195.00; South Camrose, probationer, $105.00; Perintosh, probationer, $245.00. Bittern Lake and New Norway shall be supplied by men from college, and will be self supporting under these conditions. Owing to the difficulty in securing men, together with the financial stringency, which is likely to affect the missionary givings, Pigeon Lake and Battle Lake were left un-supplied. The district will endeavor to secure the services of some of the general secretaries or other leading missionary workers in both home and foreign work to address meetings throughout the district on behalf of missions consequently most of the fields were booked as making local arrangements for missionary meetings.
In the evening an open meeting was held, when a very interesting and thoughtful address was given by Rev. Mr. Bishop, of Calgary. Mr. Bishop drew many lessons from the present war, and emphasized the importance of the Christian churches doing their duty along missionary lines, both at home and abroad. During the service Mrs. Box and Mrs. Wright sang a duet, and Mrs. Wright sang a solo.
